Retailer must charge a fee or tax referred to as Waste Tire Disposal Fees, Tire Excise Tax, or State Tire Fees depending on the particular state herein collectively referred to as ("Tire Disposal Tax) that will be retained and paid to the proper local state governing authority when legally applicable. Whereas: Wholesaler is aware that the responsibility to collect and remit Tire Disposal Tax is that of Retailers and not of Wholesaler. Therefore: Based on mutual covenants and consideration Wholesaler and Retailer desire to memorialize the responsibility in which Tire Disposal Taxes will be paid by Retailer and agree as follows: 1. Retailer is responsible for paying any and all state-required taxes or fees for any and all state in which Retailer sells tires to end consumers unless the sale is exempt according to state law. Further Retailer is responsible for knowing what those taxes and fees are, charging them at the time of sale, an remitting them in a timely fashion to the governing body of that particular state when applicable. 2. At no time will the Wholesaler be responsible for paying any Tire Disposal Taxes or any oth taxes on Retailer's behalf. Further, Retailer is also solely responsible for paying Tire Disposal Taxes if charges them to customers but does not remit them to the state governing body or remits taxes to thincorrect state governing body. 3. Further, Retailer will be responsible for communicating with all state governing authorities handling any issues regarding unpaid Tire Disposal Taxes, and defending Wholesaler if the state governing body attempts to charge Wholesaler for the Tire Disposal Taxes on the sale of tires Retailer resold to enconsumers. 4. Attached in "Exhibit A" is a current list of some states and their respective tire disposal fee and taxes. This Exhibit is only meant for guidance purposes and can change from time to time.
